Rental housing services – recurring homelessness access

Appeals can be made against some decisions regarding the assessment of your application for rental housing services. Full details of what you can appeal and the appeals process are contained in the leaflet Homeless? Recurring homelessness assessment appeals, which is available at your Participating Agency (Transitional Housing Manager or other nominated agency).

For further information or assistance, phone the Appeals Information Officer on (03) 9096 7426. Country callers can ring toll free on 1800 807 702.

To make an appeal, complete this form and send it to your Participating Agency, or to the Appeals Office, Level 1, 50 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne 3000.
