SECTION B
URGENCY OF YOUR HOUSING NEED

In this section, we ask about your current housing circumstances so that we can decide whether you are eligible for priority access to housing.

DOCUMENT REQUIRED
If you are a current community housing tenant please provide confirmation of your tenancy. This could be a support letter from your tenancy worker or community support agency.

The questions are directed at you; however they can apply to anyone who will be living with you.

Your safety

Q15 Are you experiencing, or at risk of family violence where you are living now, or have you left where you were living before to escape family violence?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

DOCUMENT REQUIRED
If yes, you will be contacted to come into a housing office so a housing worker can sight one of the following documents.
If you have started legal proceedings:
– an intervention order or an interim intervention order, or an application for one of these
– a Family Court restraining order
– a letter from a solicitor confirming that criminal proceedings have commenced against the alleged perpetrator of the violence.
If you have not started legal proceedings, a letter from a medical practitioner or community support worker confirming you are unsafe in your housing because of family violence.

Q16 Are you being threatened with physical violence by someone who does not live with you, or were you forced to leave your home due to a serious threat of violence?

☐ No, go to Housing Modifications (Q19)  ☐ Yes, continue

DOCUMENT REQUIRED
If yes, you will be contacted to come into a housing office so a housing worker can sight one of the following documents.
If you have started legal proceedings:
– an intervention order or an interim intervention order, or an application for one of these
OR
Alternatively you can provide a verbal or written report from a member of a federal, state or territory police service that includes:
– details of police involvement in the situation
– confirmation that you or someone you live with is under serious threat of physical violence.
If you are unable to get the police involved, we will need a report from a community support worker. The report should address:
– why you or someone you live with is threatened with physical violence
– reasons why the police cannot resolve the problem.
017 → Where are you currently living?

- [ ] In the property where I am threatened with physical violence
- [ ] I have moved to temporary accommodation (for example emergency or transitional housing or staying with family and friends)
- [ ] Neither, go to PRIORITY ACCESS APPLICATION Q19

018 → Are there any specific suburbs that you cannot reside in due to an ongoing threat of family violence or physical harm?

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

A letter or report from a support worker, the police or your solicitor detailing the specific location(s) you cannot reside in is required.

Housing modifications

019 → I require housing with

- [ ] No modifications, go to Medical needs (Q21)
- [ ] Minor modifications

  This includes small changes that can be installed in many properties, such as a step-in shower, lever taps, hand rails, lever door handles, shower seat and hand-held shower.

- [ ] Major modifications

  This includes changes that are harder and more expensive to install as they may require structural changes to a property such as a disabled (stepless) shower, disabled toilet, wheelchair access to some parts of the property, wheelchair charging bay, internal fire safety sprinkler system, and structural reinforcement for bathroom and bedroom hoists.

- [ ] Full modifications

  This means a fully-modified property which is wheelchair accessible so that someone in a wheelchair can live independently.

  A fully-modified property includes changes to the kitchen and laundry as well as major and minor changes listed above.

- [ ] Major/full modifications (I am an NDIS client)

  You need major and or full modifications as described above and are receiving funding from the National Disability Insurance Scheme to have these changes made.

020 → If you do require modifications, does your current housing have the modifications you need?

- [ ] Yes, go to next question
- [ ] No, provide details of what modifications are not installed, and why

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

If you require major or full modifications, you and your occupational therapist (or related professional) will need to do one of the following:

- Complete an Application for Special Accommodation Requirements
- Your occupational therapist will need to provide a report detailing what modifications you require and whether those modifications are already installed, or can be installed where you live now.

If you require minor modifications, then you and your doctor or occupational therapist (if you have one) will need to complete an Application for Special Accommodation Requirements.

They will also need to describe the impact that your current housing is having on your health and wellbeing, and to confirm whether it is essential that you be moved to other accommodation.
Medical needs

Q21 → Do any of these circumstances apply to you?

☐ I need housing without stairs because of limited mobility, and I live in housing with stairs now

☐ I have a medical condition and I need to access specialist medical or care services I can’t get to from where I live now by private or public transport

☐ Someone I live with needs to attend a specialist education facility and they can’t get to it from where we live (for example, you live outside of the zone for a special school that your child can attend, and the only way your child can attend is to move to another area)

☐ I need a full time live-in carer but I can’t have one because my housing is too small or in the wrong area

☐ My housing has a harmful effect on my health or medical condition (for example, an aspect of your housing can’t be managed or changed and it is having a harmful effect on your health or medical condition)

☐ No, go to Inappropriate housing (Q23) ➤

Q22 → If any of these circumstances apply to you, explain why your current housing is unsuitable.

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

Complete an Application for Special Accommodation Requirements to tell us what type of housing you need and where you need to live.

Ask your medical professional, social worker or other relevant professional to fill in the back section and confirm your need for a particular type of housing and/or location. They also need to describe the impact your current housing is having on you, or someone you live with's, wellbeing or medical condition.

Inappropriate housing

Q23 → Do any of these circumstances apply to you?

☐ I have children in my care and live in a private rooming house, hotel room or caravan without access to our own cooking or bathroom facilities

☐ My current housing forces parents or other adults to share bedrooms with children

☐ My current housing forces children of different genders to share a bedroom (where at least one child is six years or older)

☐ I need housing with at least two more bedrooms than where I am living now

☐ I am living in social housing and it is having a negative impact on my wellbeing or the wellbeing of other tenants

☐ I am living in privately managed shared housing or privately managed rooming house that is having a long-term detrimental effect to my health or wellbeing

To decide if you need at least two or more bedrooms, we consider the following:

– two children of the same gender, under 18 years of age, share one room
– two siblings of the same gender, regardless of age, share one room
– two children of any gender, both under six years of age, share one room.

☐ No, go to Family reunification (Q29) ➤
Q24 Does your household intend to live together on an ongoing basis?
- No
- Yes

Q25 Has your current household lived together for at least the past six months?
- No
- Yes

Q26 Is your current accommodation overcrowded due to an increase in dependents, or because your household has taken in an extra person who either needs ongoing care or provides ongoing care to another household member?
- No
- Yes

Q27 Are all members of your household living with you now?
- No
- Yes

Q28 If not, specify their names and the reason why.

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

Provide a copy of your lease or a support letter from a real estate agent, community support agency or tenancy worker confirming:

- your living arrangements
- the number of bedrooms and the people now living in the household
- all household members have resided together for at least six months.

You do not need to show that all household members have been living together for at least six months if:

- you are a family with children living in accommodation with shared kitchen/bathroom facilities
- you had an increase in dependents
- you took in a household member in need of care, or who provides care to an existing household member.

You can also complete an Application for Special Accommodation Requirements and have your treating health practitioner describe the impact your current housing has on your medical condition.
Family reunification

Q29 → Are any children included in this application unable to live with you due to the size of your current housing, or has a Child Protection caseworker expressed concerns about your current accommodation before you can be reunited with your children?

☐ No, go to Insecure Housing (Q32) → ☐ Yes

Q30 → Explain where the children are currently living.

Are your children in the care of the Department of Health and Human Services?

☐ No

☐ Yes - Name of Child Protection caseworker

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

If the children are living with someone else (that is, not with you, or the Department of Health and Human Services), a letter from a community support worker or statutory declarations from you and the person with whom the children are residing will be required to confirm the:

- current housing circumstances of all household members
- date it is expected that you and your children will live together on a permanent basis.

If Centrelink payments for the children are received by the person the children are staying with, we need a statutory declaration confirming whether the arrangement is voluntary and whether the children will live with you when you have appropriate housing.
Insecure housing

Q32 → Are you living in transitional housing, emergency housing or crisis housing such as a refuge?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

Q33 → Are you living temporarily with family or friends who are unable to provide longer-term housing?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

DOCUMENT REQUIRED

If you answered yes, you must seek help from a homeless service or other housing-related support organisation to find housing. The intake worker must complete Section E to tell us about your housing situation and confirm the help they have given you.

You must also provide us with one of the following documents:

- If you are staying with a friend or family member then you will need to provide written confirmation from the housing worker or the person you are staying with that you are unable to stay on a long-term basis, the reason you cannot remain there, and the date you will have to leave.

If you have been asked to provide documents at any point, you may be eligible for priority access to housing. Please provide the documents requested above and go to the next page.

If you have not been asked to provide documents or do not require to complete Section E of this form go to the next questions below.

Special Housing Needs aged 55 years and over

Q34 → Are you single with no dependants and are 55 years of age or over?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

Q35 → Are you partnered with no dependants, and both of you are 55 years of age or over?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

If yes, you may be eligible for priority access to housing. You are not required to provide any additional documentation for this priority category.

STOP

If you have answered No to Q34 and Q 35 then you may not be eligible for priority access to housing.

Do not continue to fill out this form. Please contact your local Department of Health and Human Services office or another housing provider or support agency if you wish to discuss your housing circumstances.
